

Looking for staff?

We run a business just like you, and we know what employers look for when recruiting: job ready candidates, information about wage subsidies and support in the workplace.

Increasingly, employers are learning of the benefits of having a diversified workforce, and that is where we can help.

Wage Subsidies

You might be eligible for a wage subsidy even if the job is part-time or casual or for an apprenticeship or traineeship.

Your Joblife Employment consultant will take care of all the details, including the paperwork, and make the whole process of applying for a subsidy simple and pain-free!

Ask us about Restart subsidies for employing people over 50 or local state-based subsidies for employing young people.

Joblife

Have an employee who has a disability, illness or injury and needs additional support to stay at work or keep their job?

Contact your Joblife Employment Consultant for information about the Government funded Work Assist program for workplace modifications and specialised equipment.

Fill your vacancy

Job seekers registered with Joblife Employment have undergone a thorough job match before they are introduced to your business. We take the time to understand the interests and abilities of each and every one of our job seekers.

Your time is precious and we'll only put forward the candidates who we believe can do the work you need.

Encouraging applications from people with disability increases the pool of talent available to fill your job!

When the job is filled

You will have support from your Joblife Employment Consultant to settle your new employee into their role so they can be successful and help your business grow.

Post placement support (PPS) can include induction and familiarisation, training for your staff on working with a person with disability or mental health condition, and a minimum 6 months of personal support from Joblife.
